For all who long for
stillness, depth
and a healing
connection with the Earth.

No prior experience
needed.

A retreat
dedicated to the earth.

A ritual
itself to
pray,
heal and
embody
the new earth.

I'm Kira. founder of Earth Healing Cooperation. Since childhood. I've felt a deep bond with the Earth and a calling to serve her.

This led me into activism. her balism. element yoga. and nature therapy. I create workshops and retreats that blend plant wisdom with creative expression, guiding people back to nature and their true selves.

After losing my voice
to vocal cord
cancer, silence
became my greatest teacher deepening
my mission to lead a quieter, more
inward path of transformation, back to the inner world.

I am Jamila, creating transformative experiences through sound, voice, and movement.

Trained in Sound Healing, I guide deep connection and self discovery. Blending electronic and organic instruments with therapeutic frequencies.

As a movement practitioner, I draw from Body Mind Centering, Contact Improvisation, and Authentic Movement.

Rooted in reverence for the Earth, my mission is to revive ancient rituals for a sacred, embodied connection with nature.

Are you ready to reconnect with the Earth and your inner stillness?

SHE is your medicine.
